How Do They Do It??

Where do the forms come from?

Forms available on Gale LegalForms include forms drafted by attorneys for a particular legal matter, forms from public records and participating companies and attorneys. "Official" forms for many states are also included.

For more information, visit the "About" and "FAQ" section of the Legal Forms website.

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR HEALTH CARE

(§§ 1337.11 to 1337.17)

Selected Definitions

- A "permanently unconscious state" is a state of permanent unconsciousness in a principal that, to a reasonable degree of medical certainty as determined in accordance with reasonable medical standards by the principal's attending physician and one other physician who has examined the principal, is characterized by both of the following:
 - Irreversible unawareness of one's being and environment.
 - Total loss of cerebral cortical functioning, resulting in the principal having no capacity to experience pain or suffering.
- A "terminal condition" is an irreversible, incurable, and untreatable condition caused by disease, illness, or injury from which, to a reasonable degree of medical certainty both of the following apply:
 - There can be no recovery.
 - Death is likely to occur within a relatively short time if life sustaining treatment is not administered.
