A POEM LOVELY AS A TREE
A TREE WHOSE HUNGRY MOUTH IS PRESSES AGAINST THE EARTH'S SWEET FLOWING BREATH
DEDICATION

In recognition and grateful acknowledgment of the guidance, advice, and thoughtful consideration tendered us in her capacity as a faculty adviser of the senior class, the Student Council, and the Girl Reserves, the class of 1933 dedicate to Miss Irma Jones, as a gesture of esteem and appreciation, their yearbook, The Scarlet and Gray.
In order that the memories of 1932-1933 may remain with us always, we have arranged a theme suggestive of the community surrounding Mentor High School; many times we have been told that we live in one of nature's favored places.

We hope this book may incite in future students the continuance of existing loyalty and faith.

Seniors

AFTER our career as seniors can surely be written the word “Successful.” All handicaps were overcome, and all precedents fulfilled. With Mrs. George and Miss Jones as advisors and with seniors to guide them, the Commentator and the Scarlet and Gray staff published their works despite financial discouragement.

The shield of the Conqueror rightly hangs over the heads of our championship football and basketball teams, both captained by seniors and coached by Mr. Masonbrink and his able assistant, Mr. Curry.

A great part of the success in the presentation of the operetta lay with its senior leads. By presenting a splendid oration, a '33 graduate was chosen as representative in the County Oratorical and Reading Contest. The annual senior play was presented by the dramatic talent of the class.

THE combined Glee Clubs of Mentor High School presented an operetta "The Belle of Barcelona", by Charles Ross Chaney on April first under the supervision of Miss Fasig and Mr. Corry.

The setting of this operetta is in Spain at fiesta time. Margarita de Montero, the daughter of a wealthy plantation owner, has fallen in love with Lieutenant Harold Wright, whom she met while touring the United States with her parents. Their courtship was ended abruptly by her unexpected return to Spain.

Three years elapsed during which Margarita has gone to a finishing school in Madrid. She returns the day of the annual bull fight in Barcelona, and on this day Lieutenant Wright arrives in Barcelona as custom inspector. While walking through the plaza he finds a mantilla on which is attached a silver pin and recognizes it as one he gave Margarita in Washington. When Margarita returns to look for her mantilla, they meet; the old romance is resumed.

Lieutenant Wright learns that her parents have arranged her engagement to a scheming Spanish nobleman, much against her will. He and his friends are unsuccessful in their efforts to break this engagement, for he is opposed by the cunning nobleman and Margarita's ambitious parents.

He suspects the nobleman, who is chief inspector for the Spanish government, as being responsible for certain alleged conditions existing at the customs house. As a result of his investigations he reveals the true character of the chief inspector. The nobleman pleads for mercy through Margarita's parents, and it is promised on the condition that he release Margarita from the engagement.

A happy ending concludes the story as wedding bells proclaim Margarita's marriage to Lieutenant Wright.

The principal parts were taken by Ruth Campbell, Arthur Canfield, John Murray, Virginia Heil, Bud Hausmann, Jack Hughes, Helen Kephart, Bill Merkel, Carl Kehl, Homer Hull, Leonard Marsh, Merla Mueller, Clifford Dean, Betty Dauler, and Mary Lew Peck.
"The Radio Mystery"

"THE RADIO MYSTERY" was produced on February 25 by the Junior Class of Mentor High. This famous play was successfully played on Broadway, and the same triumph accompanied the presentation in Mentor.

Fay Martin, the heroine, is shot by an unknown person in the first scene. Immediately a police inspector who is in the audience takes charge of the situation. As the scene progresses an irrate Irish girl is dragged from the balcony, but to no avail.

Darrell, a disappointed lover, is thought to have shot Fay Martin, but two other possibilities avert suspicion somewhat. The suspects are narrowed down to Dudley Stewart and an unknown person in the gallery. The police force is hampered by the house staff, especially by the manager whose show has been ruined. To add to the excitement, the house lights are switched off several times.

When the house is in darkness, a deadly ultra-violet ray lamp paralyzes the inspector's hand. The mystery is solved by a confession broadcast from a nearby radio station. The confession of Fay Martin's husband frees her daughter, Mary Heyward, as well as Dudley Stewart from suspicion.

At the exciting climax Fay Martin states that playing dead for two hours is no easy task. Her maid, Effie D'Art, a self made heroine, and Dolly Belmont, a bathing beauty, add a touch of variety.

The play was directed by Mr. Corry; George Waldie was the stage manager. The cast included Doris Pederson, William Dauler, Marjorie Morgan, William Pierce, Dorothea Martin, Betty Dauler, John Dickey, Robert Mighton, Robert Lingafelter, John Randall, Helen Soderberg, James Paden, William Ingersoll, Harland Howells, Paul Orvos, Robert Pinkney, Kenneth Moore, Robert Haase, George Digby, Helen Kephart, Edythe Wouter, Robert Andrus, William Louden, Ralph Davies, and Ralph Drake.
THE senior class produced a different type of play this year than ever before given in Mentor High School. It was neither a mystery nor a farce but a fast moving comedy-drama. Its laughter and its tears were worked in artistically with its carefully developed plot.

The play, “The Girl Who Forgot”, portrays vividly the dramatic struggle between vengeance and love in the heart of a girl. Rose May tricks her way into the home of a district attorney in order to aid an accomplice, who is disguised as a butler in the same house, in stealing the jewels of the attorney’s little blind ward, and incidently to punish him in some way for sending her father to prison. The pathetic little blind heiress instantly wins her way into Rose’s heart, and the district attorney himself is not slow to follow.

There is true pathos when she vainly struggles to decide whether to remain faithful to her two loves and her father’s memory or whether to carry out her plans.

The little blind girl is within the clutches of two secret enemies, a doctor and his sister. These two have become the foster brother and sister of this blind child, so that, in case of her death, they will fall heir to her valuable jewels. She is in their care, and by slow poisoning they are attempting to kill her.

The plot is unraveled with the aid of a detective disguised as a Swedish gardener. Comic relief is supplied by a flirtatious flapper, her fatuous admirer, a Swedish housekeeper, and her detective swain.

Scholarship Club

The reward for high scholastic attainments at Mentor High is membership in the Lake County Scholarship Club. Mentor now has twenty-two members, which is a great increase over the past year. Those students who have attained a four year membership are Bertha Carrel, Freida Carrel, Marjorie Ingersoll, and Margaret Merkel.

The Lake County Scholarship banquet was held at Wickliffe on February 21, and the officers for the coming year were elected. Paul Glennin was elected as president of the county organization; it will be remembered that Mentor has furnished other valuable officers in former years.

Members of this club are entitled to pins. Bronze pins signify one year membership; silver pins are earned by those who have maintained their standing for two years, while the acquirement of life membership (three years) entitles them to gold pins.

Student Council

The Student Council of Mentor High School "works in a mysterious way, its wonders to perform." Although inconspicuous to many, this organization does much of importance about the school. The Council is composed of students elected from each class whose presidents also automatically become members; it meets once each week to discuss the problems which arise in regular school activities.

The Council sponsors the Annual Carnival, held in the school gymnasium; this is one of the outstanding pleasure events of the year. It has also been a custom for this representative group to purchase a flag each year and to present it to the school as a gift.

In the past, parties and dances have been sponsored by them. This year, at Christmas time, an inter-school dance was held which was a real success.

Varsity "M" Club

The members of the Varsity "M" Club of Mentor High School propose to create a better standard and understanding of social life among its members, and in the community.

Although this is a new organization here, it has an excellent start. Only those who have received varsity M's are eligible for membership. Two initiations are held during the year, one following football season and the other after basketball. The regular meetings are held on the first Tuesday of every month.

The club has completed many activities. Among the first was the football dance given in honor of the football team. A banquet was given at the first initiation for the sole purpose of having a good time.
Board of Treasurers

Mentor High School's treasury system has taken in and handled approximately ten thousand dollars this year. The members of the board consist of the treasurers of all the classes in the junior and senior high school, of all organizations and of the cafeteria. Elsie Kolarovic, general treasurer of the school, keeps accurate account of all these funds. Annual and monthly reports are posted on the bulletin board for students' observation.

This system has its advantage in lessening confusion in the handling of the money, and in keeping organized the finances of the school. The organization's advisor is Miss Otto.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves were organized in Mentor High School in 1929. Members of the senior, junior, and sophomore classes are eligible for membership.

Last fall, the initiation and formal recognition services were held. Throughout the year many delightful suppers and programs were given, in which Girl Reserve co-operation and spirit was shown. Perhaps the most enjoyable event of the year was the Girl Reserve play, which was successfully produced at the carnival. Besides the play, the girls also sponsored a booth at the carnival. The club provided a bountiful basket for a poor family during the holidays.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y club of Mentor High School is an organization whose purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character."

The many activities of this year include a theater party, and swimming once a month at the Y. M. C. A. in Painesville. Meetings are held every Monday evening during which many interesting talks are given.

The regular meetings are followed by recreation in the gymnasium. This is a fine chance for boys to co-operate in sports of the season. Mr. Casey is in charge of this group as faculty advisor.

Orchestra

This year the Mentor High orchestra has gone in for bigger and better things. Their leader is Mr. Hendry. Thirty-six musicians at present compose the group.

It is customary for the orchestra to furnish the music for the school assemblies, and also to play at the commencement program. Two of the most important events of the season were the Lake County Festival on April 21 and the State Orchestra Contest on April 28.

The orchestra has done splendid work and is to be commended for its accomplishments. Many new and young members were in the group this year.
Band

The Mentor High School band was organized for the first time this year and is directed by Mr. Hendry, the well-known orchestra and band leader of Lake County. The band, which consists of forty enthusiastic members, plays alternately with the orchestra for assembly programs.

In addition to having two rehearsals each week, the band holds occasional joint rehearsals with Painesville, Kirtland, and Wickliffe school bands. It is planned to give summer concerts combined with these bands in Painesville, Kirtland, Wickliffe, and Mentor. The group took part in the Lake County school music festival in April.

Com-Mentor

The Com-Mentor is a regular publication produced by Mentor High School students. This newspaper is published every two weeks throughout the school year, and has won several state and national merits. The Com-Mentor has the distinction of being a member of both the National Scholastic Press Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. This model paper compares very well with the publications of larger high schools in Ohio, which is no small honor. It is a very well balanced paper filled with the greater events of school life as well as with various features; it displays the exceptional talents of many of the students of Mentor High School.

Scarlet and Gray

The Scarlet and Gray, an annual yearbook edited by the senior class, embodies many of the prominent features of former books as well as some novel ideas and arrangements. The book is conservative and economical but complete. Every effort has been made to include all individual and group pictures as before. All officers are identified. An improved method of advertising is used in this year’s volume which is more compact and much more beneficial to its advertisers.

A delightful addition, which adds much to the pleasure of reading the book, is its theme “Trees”. This was selected from several suggestions as the most appropriate for this community.
Football

MENTOR HIGH SCHOOL'S football squad completed a perfect season this year under the careful training of Coach Masonbrink and Assistant Coach Corry. Mentor won every game played, and consequently the Lake-Geauga League title. The total points scored this season were 146 to our opponents' 12. One hundred twenty-six of the points were scored in league games, with the Scarlet and Gray blanketing all league opponents. The only touch-downs scored against Mentor were made in the games with Lakewood and Willoughby, both independent tilts.

Sixteen boys received varsity football letters this year. They were Ed Logan, William Dauler, Clement DeWalt, Joe Shandle, Clifford Dean, Bud Hausmann, Arthur Canfield, John Murray, Clayton Richter, and Paul Orvos, all of whom have played their last high school game; and Robert Haase, Woodrow Russell, Bill Linsz, Ford Davis, Robert Lingafelter, and Paul Glendinning, who will help to form next year's team.

Six boys were chosen for the all Lake-Geauga Team. They were Logan, as fullback; Glendinning, left end; Haase, left guard; Dean, center; Orvos, right guard; and Hausmann, right tackle. Mentor also had three players on the second team and two on the honorable mention list.

Valuable material was uncovered in the Reserve squad, and great things are expected of them in next season's games. A great amount of credit is due to these boys who provided good opponents for the varsity team to practice with and against.

Varsity Basketball

With a fine team and with many likely substitutes, Mentor started her season of successful basketball. The program called for thirteen games. These included three independent tilts besides the league games. The independent games were held with Maple Heights, Mayfield, and Painesville.

Most of the games were exceedingly close and exciting. Mentor lost two of the thirteen games—one to Painesville and the other to Madison; the latter was a league game.

The season was brought to a close by winning the Lake County League championship, thus making two consecutive championships. We were then eligible to enter the sectional Class B tournament held in Berea at the Baldwin-Wallace College gymnasium. The first game played by Mentor was a hard fought battle with Amherst. Surprises came from both teams, including ties, leads, and sensational plays. The game was won by Amherst by a narrow margin.

The Mentor team had three veterans of last year’s championship team. These were Bill Dauler, Clayton Richter, and Bill Merkel. Next year’s team has a fine start in Paul Glendinning, Robert Haase, and Woodrow Russell, letter-men this year. They played exceptionally well in the league games, and will make fine starting material for another successful team.

Reserve Basketball

The reserve basketball squad, which was almost as successful as the varsity team, completed a schedule which placed them second among the reserve squads of the Lake County League. The Wickliffe team carried off first honors.

The Mentor team won seven games and lost three, the losses being two to Wickliffe and one to Fairport.

Among the high scorers of the team were Harland Howells, Kenneth Sprague, and Ralph Davies, juniors, and a freshman, Bob Frey. This squad is certainly very promising as a varsity team, and a large number of the players will probably be the basis of next year’s varsity squad.

Junior High Boys’ Basketball

Mentor’s Junior High basketball team made a fine showing in the season’s games. The team was coached by Mr. Corry, a new member of the faculty this year.

Although they did not make a perfect showing, the team was able to break even by winning four games and losing four. They played against teams from Painesville, Willoughby, Mentor village, and Kirtland, two games being played with each school. Mentor won both games from Mentor Village, one from Painesville and one from Kirtland.

Many of these boys hope to help carry the school to victory when they become senior high students.
Track

With the track season opening, as the annual goes to press, Mentor is hopeful of picking a very successful team from the fine material uncovered during the interclass and C. A. C. meets. The boys have been practicing faithfully in order to maintain the high standing of former years.

Several stars of last year’s team are with us again. The dashes and relays will be represented by Harland Howells, speed star of last year’s team, Jack Hughes, Bill Dauler, Bob Eaton, George Digby, and Joe Shandle. They demonstrated their speed at the C. A. C. meet held in Cleveland.

The grueling one half mile and mile runs are the responsibilities of Bob Norris, Richard Dey, Bob Lingafelter, and Ernest Shandle — all veterans of last year’s team — and one newcomer, Bob Haase.

The excellent high-jumping team consisting of Jack Hughes, Dewitt Murphy, and John Dickey is the same that won laurels last year.

Mentor’s muscular team for the weight and javelin throws has one new addition, Carl Kehl, along with Bud Hausmann, Clement DeWalt, and Paul Glendinning.

The running broad jump is represented by Howells and Dauler.

Two fine pole-vaulters, Dewitt Murphy and Ford Davis, have been selected to represent Mentor.

The C. A. C. meet gave us a fine example of our speed stars’ abilities. Harland Howells won the 440 yard dash, and the relay teams took first places in their respective events. Mentor took third as a school in Class C, winning the three events entered.

Cross Country

A great amount of time and energy was spent by the cross-country runners as they practiced their sport over the hills and rough places of the community. Cross-country racing, a comparatively new sport, has gained much popularity among the students at Mentor High School because of its newness. It is now considered a major sport and is watched with great interest by its admirers.

Although our school is a Class B school, Mr. Masonbrink entered the team in the Class A meet in Cleveland where it placed fourth. Ernest Shandle, an outstanding freshman runner, placed fifteenth as an individual runner, being the first from Mentor to finish. His high position won him a medal.

Two meets were held with Painesville, in which Mentor proved to be the victor.

The squad had three letter men this year: Richard Dey, Bob Norris, and Ernest Shandle. To be a winner of a cross-country letter is an honor, for only two letters have previously been awarded to Mentor boys since this sport was taken up three years ago. They were given to Harold Gordon and Robert Lingafelter.

The team will miss two of its members when Dey and Norris graduate.
Girls’ Intra-Mural Award Holders

Intra-mural awards are given by Mentor High School to show her appreciation of fine athletic work accomplished by girl students. The first award is a set of class numerals which signify that the owner has three hundred points to her credit; a small letter is given for six hundred points; and a large one for a total of one thousand two hundred points.

These points are given to those taking part in the various class sports and to those making the class teams in basketball, baseball, volleyball, and track. Captains of teams are given extra points.

If a girl desires to mix work with pleasure she can accumulate points by hiking any distance over a mile, provided that she is accompanied by another. Swimming at the Y. W. C. A. will add points. Awards are given each year.

Girls’ Basketball

A brilliant season of interclass and interschool basketball was played by the various girls’ teams of Mentor High school. The championship class team at the close of the season was the flashy junior team, which outplayed all other class teams. These players really knew how to play basketball. Their teamwork was exceedingly good, which probably accounts for their many victories.

Several outside games were participated in by this group. These included games with the junior class teams of Kirtland, Andrews, and Painesville schools.

Mentor was victorious over the first two schools but lost to Painesville by a very close score of 26 to 28.

All other classes of the senior high school also had teams entered in the intramural contest and played outside games. In the local contest they finished in this order: juniors, first; sophomores, second; seniors, third; and freshmen, fourth.

Junior High Girls’ Basketball

In the junior high girls’ basketball league, the girls of the 8 B home room claim the distinction of champions. To determine the honorary team the 8 A and 8 B teams played a deciding game, in which 8 B came out victorious by one point.

This junior high six challenged both teams from the freshman class and were victorious in one of these games—the one with the freshmen reserves. They lost to the regular freshmen team. Yvonne Stalnaker was elected honorary captain of the group.

Although most competitive interschool basketball games for girls are a thing of the past, much pleasure is derived from these intra-mural games. Surely this group of junior high girls will do much to enliven competition when they are members of the senior high group next year.
To those loyal Contributors whose support makes possible the publication of this 1933 Scarlet and Gray, we pay our grateful tribute.
