We, the seniors of 1945, dedicate this annual to all of you who have launched us on our way on the sea of life. We dedicate this to you who by your help, advice and loyal friendship have made high school the never-to-be-forgotten days of our lives. We thank you parents, teachers, friends—we thank each one of you, for without your help we could never have boarded this ship nor hoped to sail the "sea of life." Our course has been charted—we are on our way and by your help we are prepared now to face both calm and stormy weather.

IN MEMORIAM

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

—Tennyson
IN THE SERVICE

Looking over the passenger list for the good ship M.H.S., we find several very familiar names missing. Names that have meant a lot to us in the past—our elementary school pals, the kid that used to throw spitwads in the library third period, the boy who spent most of his time in the office, the boy who always came through English exams with an A. These boys, who are not with us in our last year aboard the M.H.S., have boarded even greater ships than ours—our nation’s man o’ wars. They are out fighting, even now, for things like graduating classes and annuals—fourth period study halls and ice cream suckers—Latin grammars and initialed desks—all the things that mean school to us. And not only school but freedom, democracy and life itself. Let these be our heroes. Let us remember them with a deep sense of gratitude and pride—these boys—our schoolmates. America’s men.

You, as members of the class of '45, have spent the early years of your lives training your minds, building your character, and developing your bodies. These are now your greatest assets in the duties and responsibilities of life just ahead.

Material goods are the goods that may easily be destroyed. Goods of the mind and of the character will endure throughout life, in any social, economic, or political system, or through any changes of fate. You can do no better than to continue to seek the fullest development of all your capabilities and dedicate them to the service of country and humanity.

Mentor High School bids you farewell and good luck.

Mr. D. R. Rice, Superintendent of Schools
IN THE PILOT HOUSE

Guiding the S.S.M.H.S. through all the fair and stormy weather of school life is Mr. Ellis M. Hostetler who comes to us from Louisville, Ohio, where he taught for eleven years. For a brief biography, Mr. Hostetler graduated from Goshen College, Indiana in 1931 where he obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree. He majored in the social sciences and English, with a minor in the physical sciences. His special interests are athletics and debating. While in college he was president of his class for three years. He came to Mentor in 1942 to take the helm as principal besides teaching history and the social sciences.

Mr. Hostetler is known to the students especially for his fair play and for the aid he has given them. He has taken an active interest in all the school’s activities and especially the students themselves.

Seventh-graders flounder in sea of activities as they embark on the good ship M. H. S.  ● Sorting the excess baggage . . . Ted Kurth, Richard Speaker, Joanne Toncre, Norman Phillips

Experiencing for the first time the joys of intramural sports, basketball, volleyball ● plans for first dance, first party dresses, classy ties ● classes, classes, and more classes, reading the "Lance of Kanana," learning the fine art of balancing the budget ● enterprising fens try hand at cheer-leading ● magazine drive gives them first taste of selling — invaluable experience as they will find, in their senior year ●
Football

Delbert Caton takes over helm of green Cardinal eleven • Lettermen Loomis, Markell, Szalai, form cornerstone in “T” formation • advancing to the powerful Lake Shore League makes Mentor “little fish in a big pond” • Fifty-four boys report for first practice • Seniors dominate starting eleven • Conneaut stunned by speedy Cardinals in first half •

Line holds 6 inches from goal on seven plays, best stand of year • Geneva brings powerful Eagles, but their wings are clipped by their former coach •

Hit that dummy! Hit that dummy!—not Nunamaker, the dummy! • Coach Drabentstott drives hard line •

Mate replaces Phillips, varsity center, injured in Geneva game • Johns is only guard in school history to pull out of the line to pass • Scrimmages are halted as injuries come thick and fast in scrub victory over varsity • Mentor defeated in punting dual in second half by Painesville • Zalamini still the bone crusher as Harbor rocks Cards • Schroeder speeds 55 yards through Harbor line for only score •

“Anybody want to run around the track with me again?”—“What’s the matter, you crazy or something?” •

Coaches: Delbert Caton, Howard Barnes, and Lester Drabentstott.
GRIDIRON GOBS

Front row: Lee Dietrich, James Schroeder, Vincent Szalai, Robert Loomis, Larry McCollister, Alden Markell, Franklin Fagan, Robert Metzger, Manager, Paul Beavers.
Second row: Manager Bruce Caird, Gus Mate, Lyle Snell, Robert Johns, Paul Unger, Ray Miller, Jake Smith, Everett Fenner, William Nunamaker, Manager, Donald Rice.
Fourth row: William Kessler, Leonard Santti, Ralph Kirkland, Donald Sedivy, John McQuaid, Alden Kuhlman, Joe Torak.

Mentor nips Blue Devils in Dust Bowl—our beloved “blue grass” field • Fagan plays bang-up game at center • Red Birds score first but Fairport has last say • Fagan becomes only lineman to score •

Cards invade Rangers camp with shields and are carried off on them • Johns receives “accidental” smack in kidneys • Loomis, Fagan, Schroeder, follow rapidly • Markell and Szalai play demon games on defense as Willoughby varsity plays all but eight minutes • Wiley knocked slightly dizzy, tangles with Glavac and Nungesser as they pierce Cardinals’ riddled line • The game ends none too soon as coach dons uniform • Mentor holds Ashtabula for one quarter but they play four quarters unfortunately •

Season ends and players receive just rewards •

Markell is voted captain by lettermen • Jake Smith receives most valuable player award, and the big tackle certainly earned it • Vince, “big mountain,” Szalai plays magnificently against terrific odds in last three games • McCollister blasts opponents until stopped by bad knee • Schroeder is the brunt of the attack • Jim contracts a disease known as “fumblitis” • Loomis plays with his back to the enemy, but they get it in the end • key play “Isbell” Johns to “Hutson” Loomis • “Monk” Alford takes the razzing and gives it back in performance •

Paul Unger, a mean man, suffers knee trouble •

Bob Metzger, Lee Dietrich, and Frank Fagan play the ends • They bear the brunt of end sweeps by Zalalini, Glavac, Kakas, Kleinshrot • Ray Dawson keeps “in shape” when crutches are the style and replaces injured lineman and holds the fort • Gus Mate is the center of activity • George Wiley, all of 120 pounds of him, finds it easier to catch a runner from behind than meet him head on • Our hats are off to all of you—win, lose, or draw.
Mentor Jolts Blue Devils 6-0

The Mentor Cardinals defeated the Wholesome Blue Devils 6 to 0 in the Mentor stadium on October 28. The game started unspectacularly with both teams doing nothing all quarter. The second quarter was more active and both teams scored touchdowns. The Cardinals scored a touchdown on a pass from the quarterback to the halfback. The Blue Devils scored on a pass from the halfback to the fullback. The score at halftime was 6 to 0 in favor of the Cardinals. The third quarter was the same as the second, with both teams scoring touchdowns. The score at the end of the third quarter was 12 to 0 in favor of the Cardinals. The fourth quarter was the same as the third, with both teams scoring touchdowns. The final score was 18 to 0 in favor of the Cardinals.

Markell’s underhanded shots baffle Harbor, but Mentor falters in last half, “Get those 20 laps!” • Beckman and Dietrich star consistently on defense, “That doesn’t seem right.” • Geneva brings team and Merrell with a broken ankle, sorry • Cards cap first league victory (Doctors busy as many hearts fail.) •

Rangers again whip Cards in last half • Oddest sight of season, 6’5” Sivak jumping with 5’3” Wiley • P. S.—Sivak won • “Come on ‘Bula, sock it to ’em,” and they took them seriously • Fagan cages two overhead shots in one minute, but Painesville wins thirty-two minute battle • Mentor hampered by Harbor gym . . . you have to play at Harbor to appreciate that statement • Cards baffle dopes as Lakewood holds only two point edge in final quarter • Loss of Beckman final blow . . . Mentor falls 31-25 • Tom Alford, spirited Senior, was confined to his bed most of the season, tough luck, Tom • Varsity men, Alden and Lawrence Markell, Phillips, Miller, Loomis, Dietrich, Wiley, Beckman, Fagan, and Lingafelter walked an unglorified trail, but the reserves pick up their banner and voice, “We shall return!” •

Seniors fight for titles as Juniors come in a close second • Female gobs wear bruised shins following speedball season • String up . . . position . . . streth . . . b'wang . . . thud . . . Gee! a bullseye!" • not only bullseye but strikes . . . and gutterballs, too • Junior highs star, too, those noon volleyball games • class teams chosen and girls try Zalamini tackles • Sophomores run Juniors back into staterooms as Seniors run off with basketball honors • disembarkation at Andrews results in three winning games • borrow mess table for a fast game of ping-pong • thoughts turn to other things as dances keep popping up • girls take a hand at noon, teach the males a little in the art of dancing • but you can’t dance all the time, so . . . the birdie gets a work-out • Outside winter takes the upper hand . . . ice skating, toboganning and skiing popular now • with slow disappearance of snow comes baseball . . . balmy weather . . . and "Sprig" fever • Kites, bikes, and hikes announce spring for sure.
LETTER GIRLS

Girls' Athletic Association makes history as first G. A. A. formal makes debut • excited girls turn conversation from "Who plays this noon?" to "What’s your formal like?" • soft lights, soft music, smooth dancing, and a rival to the prom • earlier in year, G. A. A. accepts new members • initiation missed by older G. A. A.'ites but dinner keeps tradition • plans begin for bowling and swimming Thursday nights • last minute rush • "Miss Craig, you got a careful tonight?" • piling up the points, then the fateful assembly • "Hey, look, I got my M!" •

LIFE BOATS

The lifeboats are those little crafts that help keep the crew interested in the ship.

They are, also, a further insurance to a safe landing.

They're the little extra things that help prepare you for the horizons ahead.
SHIP'S SIRENS

Rah! rah!
rah! rah!
Come on kids, now yell,
Fight, fight, fight, fight,
Team, you're doin' swell!
Can't you hear those cheers, boys?
Win! for all your pals.
O. K. now, let's give a cheer
For our cheer-leading gals!

CHEER LEADERS
Eileen Lucas, Nancy Barron, Norma Lanning, Patsy Osborne,
Marcia Traxler

"Yeah team, yeah team!" echoing from game to game as Pep Club follows the boys
- After the football banquet, husky teamsters trip the light fantastic as Pep Club sponsors dance
- Ralph Joseph's band introduced to Mentor, still a popular favorite
- cheerleaders pep up games with catchy new cheers . . . acrobats added attraction

PEP CLUB

fifty
Forward march and turn about,
Straighten up those lines!
Left and right and left and right,
And kids you’re doin’ fine.
Play a tune and hear ‘em yell
And loud the music gets
As on the field and strutting high
Vivacious majorettes!

MAJORETTES
Patricia Stephens, Audra Zink, Marjorie Jayne, Blanche Adams, Myrle Niebes, Jean Eckley.

"Tramp, tramp, tramp the band is marching" ... familiar and welcome sight at football games • majorettes strut high and handsome • Band club underway, Frankie Daniels leads again • “Buy a tag and boost your band.” ... they did, new uniforms and instruments gained • Mr. Nordman pleading “Watch your music now and please watch me!” •

MENTOR HIGH SCHOOL BAND
CHOIR
Long-remembered music of the mixed chorus in the Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas assemblies • Mrs. Fisher blending voices into perfect harmonies • proud choristers finally don long-awaited choir robes •

ANCHORING THE SHOWBOAT

"Hey, catch that wall! Now move the window over just a little to the right." • No, not a scene from "Hercules," just Jack Schultz backstage • memories wandering back to '44 when "The Fighting Littles" was in acclaim • Ken Amrine, the gruff father of the family, Patty, sweet-voiced honey chile from way down South • Audra with a bandage over one eye and getting into the most confusing predicaments • Doris, gentle and motherly pilots family safely through it all • Jim . . . kid brother and what a kid brother! • Our own Peggy Collier having man trouble . . . inconceivable as it may sound • Emily doing "blackface" solves the maid problem • And we never, never shall forget Kay, the entranced Egyptian dancer • or Wesley . . . such a heel and Nora all high and mighty • Loomis and Radabaugh vying for Audra's affections • "Aunt" Shirley takes a hand, too . . . not to mention the hordes of kids who trooped in at the last • A lovely pin for Miss Tobin helped show the cast's appreciation for her fine directing •

THE SHIP'S LOG (continued)
23. Balls were sizzling in the wrong stream tonight. Ashtabula Harbor 26 — Mentor 22.
27. Choir takes a trip to Willoughby and Andrews to give a program.

MARCH:
3. The deck is fragrant with the smell of gardenias as some of our crew leave for the G. A. A. ball.
9. The beaming and long faces were because those reports came out again.

APRIL:
13. Band and chorus cruise over to Willoughby to give concert.
25. It is consoling to know that these reports will come only once more.

MAY:
5. Exciting day for sport fans — hurdles, broad jump, pole vaulting, running — all at the 12th annual track meet.
12. Junior mates hold a farewell prom for the disembarking Seniors.

COCHRANS
18. Awards were handed out, in a gathering of crew, to those deserving of the ship.
25. Seniors take last step before stepping off the boat to the seas ahead.
