The CARDINAL NOTES 1949

Mentor High School
Mentor, Ohio
Foreword

The old 49'ers leave behind them in the dust of their trail this chronicle of the search for their pot o' gold.

Prospectors Joy Goss and Pat Blount and their covered-wagon crew dug deep into the sands of time to present to you these records of their trip to the end of the rainbow.

As the 49'ers of the nineteenth century travelled far in search of a bright future, we, the 49'ers of the twentieth century, have sought to make our lives more golden with these memories of our experiences at Mentor Hi.
CARDINAL NOTES
1949
Dedication

To Mr. Dale R. Rice...

who has so kindly and faithfully led the classes for twenty-five years through their high school days, and who has unflinchingly fared our difficulties, and has encouraged us in all the ways of a better life, we, the twenty-fifth graduating class of Mentor High School, gratefully dedicate this annual.
Administration

Today's world is a far cry from the world of the "49'ers." Where "roaring camps" of gold seekers were common, settled communities of prosperous and progressive people now live; travel by prairie schooner has given way to stream-liner, plane, bus; simple fire-arms and cannon are displaced by machine gun, airborne bomb, and rocket; simple games and entertainment have been shaded by movies.

Mr. Dale R. Rice

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. E. Ives, Dr. R. M. Fagan, Mr. D. R. Rice, Mr. E. H. Schultz, Mr. W. A. Stevens, Mr. H. H. Hoeffer, Mr. J. P. Shaffer. Not Pictured — Mr. Horace Wilson
radio, television, professional sports; and the isolated Little Red Schoolhouse of one class room is largely replaced by a huge building with gym, laboratories, auditorium, shops, athletic field, and other aids to education. The high school student of today must be similarly advanced beyond the student of 1849. The conditions of the present require it. Good citizenship, the fulfillment of good education, can be accomplished for our time only as students match earnest endeavor and high ambition with the available school facilities.

The "49'ers" start their caravan off by electing Bill Hickey to lead them; and along to give him a hand with the details are vice-president, Gordie Hodgins and secretary and treasurer, Barb Kotnyek and Bill Gaw.

It doesn't take the old "49'ers" long to start piling up their bags of gold by selling everything from Christmas cards to guest towels. And, as if that isn't enough, they corral some of their best talent, to put on the grease paint and present the class play.

The '49'ers' caravan almost bogs down, when the Juniors come through with a double victory in football and volleyball; but they get the wheels a rolling again by winning the basketball championship and keep them rolling by putting on a "Mid-season Mix-Up" dance.

Presiding over the caravans' activities, with the hearty approval of the bearded half of the "49'ers" is Gold Coast's Homecoming Queen, Dolly Nagy.

And now with the strains of their last prom dance in one ear and "Pomp and Circumstance" in the other, the "49'ers" each begin to take their own path in search of the fabled pot o' gold. Good luck to you all — everyone.
SENIORS
Seniors

Bill Hickey led the class through a victorious year shouting, “May I have your attention please.” Barb made up her own system of shorthand and Bill Gaw took another course in math. The committees and many other things were all supervised by vice-president Gord. The officers did a wonderful job and we leave M. H. S. with lots of memories. Thanks for all the help, kids!

Gordon Hodgins
Vice-President

Barbara Kotsyek
Secretary

William Gaw
Treasurer
Shirley Aikey
Shirley's pleasant smile,
If seen, is worth your while.

Virginia Bosley
Best dressed gal in town,
You hardly ever see her frown.

Dean Andrews
Garry is a talkative gent,
On Harvard is his "ambish" bent.

Marian Brethour
Breezy and Eddie really click,
A sharp guy and a slick chick.

Adeline Avellone
She powders her face with sunshine,
In summer, winter — anytime.

Martha Byler
When other friendships are forgot,
Remember—"My Friend Irma"

Nancy Berry
Hair of gold, eyes of blue,
All this and heaven too.

James Clark
Following Tom around the school,
Taking pictures, "Smile, you drool..."

Patricia Blount
Most likely to succeed,
She does well in every deed.

Mary Jane Castello
Janie has a guy named Jack,
For a date she'll never lack.
Jacquelyn Courville
Jackie doesn't want a bank,
Money! Heck no, she's got Frank.

Thelma Davidson
Now here is a quiet little miss.
To her friends, she's known as 'Sis.'

Donald Covert
Basketball is this boy's game,
With it he has won his fame.

Robert Eddy
What would the F.B.L.A. do?
If Bob should up and say he's through?

Ramona Crookshanks
A shy and silent gal,
But a true friend and pal.

Donna Endress
Quiet, shy, but full of pep,
A silent blond who's really hep.

Jack Crysler
"Rugged" is a shy sort of guy,
Yet sometimes we kind of wonder why?

Gene Fairchild
Sports and stuff are this guy's meat,
At track, he can't be beat!

Virginia Culver
Culver is her name,
Buicks are her fame.

Geraldine Fedak
We would describe Gerry as cute,
Looks and personality to boot.
Janet Garvin
We'd like to give Jan a hand,
For the work she's done in band.

Barbara Gray
Barb knows her Latin well,
'Cause she thinks Rex is simply swell.

Frank Gear
If there's something good to eat,
That's where Frank will take his seat.

Theresa Gruttadauria
"Terry" always looks so neat,
The boys all say, "Ain't she sweet?"

Edward Gordon
No taller, cuter boy you'll find,
But he's got Breezy on his mind.

Robert Hager
Bob is small but he gets by,
He eats and thrives on apple pie.

Joseph Gorman
Jitterbug Joe this boy is called,
He really keeps the girls enthralled.

Sally Harter
They call her frivolous Sal,
She's a silly, cute lil' gal.

Joy Goss
She's always full of pep and go,
In dramatic roles she steals the show.

Mary Hermick
A good sport who's really cute.
Nancy Hershberger
If you get sick, you'll soon feel worse,
'Cause Nancy wants to be a nurse.
(Ha, Ha.)

Donald Kelsey
A clarinet Don does play,
You can hear him any day.

William Higgins
As drum major of the band,
He was best in the land,

Evelyn Keltto
Making posters and drawing ads,
Ev will be designing the latest fads.

Dorothy Horen
Dot loves to roller skate,
She's always on time, never late.

Joyce Kirkland
At Winfield's she can always be found,
A pleasant smile while she runs around.

Ralph Hubbard
Ralph gets so mad he could swear,
When he combs his curly hair.

Nancy Mallett
Miss Mentor High's the title she's won,
At parties and things she's always more fun.

Betty Jusko
Redheaded, but not snooty,
Our little Betty is a beauty.

James Mate
The best football player of the year,
When he comes on the field the fans all cheer.
Jane McCracken
"Here Comes The Bride," her favorite tune,
She plans to be a Mrs. sometime in June.

Nancy Paterson
Her last name's spelled with just one T.
Tell her she's funny, she'll laugh with glee.

Donna Miller
Donna works in the cafeteria with a grin,
Or places patterns with a pin.

Robert Reeves
As our '49 class leaves,
We're glad to take one "Limpy" Reeves,

David Morse
Ace, better known as Davie,
Graduates, then joins the Navy.

Robert Retzler
Our class will always remember Skip,
He gave our days a little zip.

Dolores Nagy
Dolly was our football queen,
A cuter gal you've never seen.

Frank Richey
The most courteous guy in school,
Frank is certainly our class jewel.

Anna Nordin
Auburn tresses so delightful,
Should she cut them — oh how frightful.

Marcia Richter
She drives her little car around,
Watch out! She'll run you down.
Thomas Rivenbark
Shooting shots; editing papers,
Just a few of Tom's capers.

Ruth Schminky
Roller skating is her hobby,
A friendly girl who isn't snobby.

Eva Rostocil
Eva likes to cook and sew,
At Jackett's she's always on the go.

Lewis Schwentner
He works on plays behind the scenes,
And gets paint on his old blue jeans.

Robert Rust
Gable, Lawford and Tyrone,
The gals have Bob upon a throne.

Mary Singleton
A cute twirling coquette,
Is our head majorette.

Gladys Schomaker
"Blondie" as this gal is known,
Her talents have oft been shown.

Richard Smith
Sailing, sailing over the bounding main,
Yacko women give "Racehorse" quite a pain.
William Steimle
He can't dance and he sure shows it,
He's got rhythm but his feet don't know it.

Boyd Walker
Though he's shy, he has a smile
That you can see for half a mile.

Hylda Taylor
Sparkling eyes so blue,
A clown through and through.

Emmaline Wagner
In sports our Emmy does the best,
She is better than all the rest.

Joanne Thomas
Joanne and Gene are quite a pair,
Of others they are unaware.

Jack Wachs
He's captain of our football team,
At sports and stuff he's on the beam.

Mary Ann Urbas
Mary Ann is a quiet lass,
We're glad to have her in our class.

Rose Urbas
As president of the G. A. A.,
She's on the ball in every way.
Richard Warner
With Mr. Casey in the shop,
Dick's troubles never stop.

Mary Ann Wheeler
"Midge" is the nickname of this girl.
In our class she's been a pearl.

Marjorie Wendorff
Always quiet in her own natural way,
Margie's a friend in work or play.

Joanna Wilson
If it's a joke you're looking for,
Our little artist will tell you more.

Keith Whaley
Bell bottom trousers, coat of navy blue,
To the navy he'll always be true.

Laura Wollam
"Wimpy" is her nickname,
As a swell gal she's earned her fame.
Class of '48

'48 Commencement
Juniors

"Step right up and get your red hot 'doggies'! The best hot dogs in the country." No, you aren't at a county fair but right outside the junior stand. Not only do they have "dogs" in this "store" but they have potato chips, pop, and candy, too. Pretty ambitious kids. Under the leadership of Jim Lors, backed by Joyce Markell, Mary Ann Booker, and Don Dusa, they are really going places. Get busy kids! You still have an annual to put out. I wonder where everyone is rushing to. You say the Juniors are giving away candy with every pencil you buy? But don't rush! It's just a rumor to start some business. I wonder if they do anything else. They're always so busy. Listen to all the "ohs" and "ahs." Oh, the rings have finally arrived! Most all of them are the right size except for a few that are either too big or too small. Manakiki Country Club, Friday the 13th, Willard Potts Orchestra. What a weekend! What a prom! Definitely not an unlucky day!

Sophomores

Vincent Peskar, Dick Mookey and George De-Vaull lead the sophomores through this year. Jan Ozier regains as "Cinderella" at the sophomore "Silver Slipper Ball." The Class of '51's Annual Fund grows from proceeds of hat and coat checking at all the main events. The sophs are in the thick of the battle for the intramural trophy and many of them shine in varsity athletics. Just wait til these kids are seniors!

Freshmen

Freshmen, one hundred and thirty-five strong invade Mentor High and make a landing in the balcony. Dick Ahlstrom, Sally Tibbits, Bill Verbsky, and Don Trowbridge are elected presidents in enthusiastic elections. You can always tell a freshman by the number of books he drops when he bumps into an upperclassman. They take advice from everyone on how to study Latin, algebra, general science, and English. My! how the year changes them! Annual spring dance is THE EVENT! Next year they won't be so bashful!

Football starts off Mentor High's year in sports with injuries to both players and cheerleaders prevailing. Dad's Night again stands out as memorable. Jim Mate voted most valuable player. Underclassmen make good showing.

Intramurals highlight noons. Competition is keen between classes. Main event for girls is the All-Star basketball games at Andrews. The Jr. High team does well in their newly formed league.

Basketball fills winter weekends with the Mentor quintet always in there fighting. Dances after games are added attractions. John Hay is Class A tournament opponent at end of season. Cheerleaders make a good showing.

Track gets underway with much enthusiasm. Lake Shore League title defenders put up stiff competition for other schools. Twenty-first Mentor Relays and Lake Shore Track Meet held on home grounds highlight season.
During the pre-school afternoons, 'neath a hot sweltering sun, the grunts and groans of the perspiring football team members are heard echoing from the football field.

Nine returning lettermen bolster the Cardinal squad as other hopefuls seek to fill the vacancies. Handicapped by broken legs, noses, and the like, the Cards prepare to meet their opponents.

Outstanding memories of the season are the 7-0 win over Warren St. Mary's, and the rumpus that followed the game; the Suolahti benefit Reserve game with neighboring Fairport; the rah-rah, rah-rah-rah of the cheerleaders; and shining above it all, even through the fog, we see our gal, M. H. S. Homecoming Queen of 1948, Dolores Nagy, along with her attendants, Marty Byler, Gerry Fedak, Betty Mate, and Mary Ann Booker. Despite the fog, Captain Jack Wachs comes through with the honors of the evening in fine style.

Climaxing it all, the annual banquet brings John Brickels of the Cleveland Browns coaching staff as guest speaker and Coach Michael awards twenty-six varsity letters to players and managers.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

The battle for the intramural trophy gets under way as the juniors take first place in football. Immediately following that win, they come back to take top honors in volleyball. All classes wage a stiff battle for the championship in basketball and voices from all sides of the gym are heard cheering the teams onward. The seniors take the title and as old man Winter disappears, the battle rages on out in the wide open spaces with baseball and track uppermost in the minds of the boys.
GIRLS’ INTRAMURALS

The Seniors come out on top as girls battle for intramural honors. Hockey and volleyball fill in as the girls anxiously await basketball season. Inter-school basketball is an added highlight of the year as girls from Mentor, Painesville, Fairport, Perry, Willoughby, and Andrews get together. Ping pong and badminton take up time until spring rolls around and turns a young girl’s fancy to thoughts of track and baseball.

ACTIVITIES
Annual

Mid-summer meetings, arguments, pictures coming out the wrong size — are just a few of the many things confronted by the editors and staff members. Staying after School almost every night, just about breaking their necks trying to be different and get the annual out on time.

Lighter moments find the staff laughing over notes found in the halls after school, guzzling cokes and planning for a bang-up party to celebrate the book of the year going to press.

The Class Will

We, the gold diggers of '49, being of thick heads and puny bodies, do hereby bequeath this last will and testament in the year of our Lord and the class of one thousand, nine hundred and forty-nine; to all future students who may roam these great halls and mourn for us who have went.

To those loyal professors we leave fond memories. (Ha) And now we shall enumerate:

To Mr. Andrews: A brand new pen to write down all the demerits with.

To Mr. H. Barnes we leave a new "Oscar."

To Mr. W. Barnes and Mr. Casey we leave Jerry Smith.

We leave hoping Mrs. Buhler will maintain her enthusiastic school spirit.

We leave Miss Craig all the belated Latin assignments that got lost in the rush.

To Miss Davis we leave a new tape measure to use next year for caps and gowns.

To Miss Dickson and Miss Kost we leave memories of their first year at Mentor High.

To Mr. Hammond we leave all the cat naps that the senior fellas get in study halls.

We leave Mr. Harper with his swell Junior High Basketball team.

To Mrs. Heffner we leave the junior stand and a big fat pig to make wiener's out of.

To Mr. Higham we leave stripes that go the right way. Period!

To Mr. Hostetler we leave all the troubles of Mentor High because we know that he can remedy them.

To Mr. Howells we leave a gold medal for courage and a new set of nerves for next year's driving classes.

To Mr. Keller we leave a big bundle of congratulations for all the swell art work that's been done this year.

To Mr. Maxwell we leave long lean fellas for his basketball team, and to Mr. Michael we leave Jim Lors, whom he already has as football captain.

We leave Mr. and Mrs. Moor together.

To Mrs. Nordman we leave a brand new pad and pencil on which to jot down messages.

We leave Mr. Nordman without a tuba player.

We leave Mr. Phillips to carry on the swell job he has done with the Magazine Drive.

To Mrs. Plukka we leave an auditorium full of cooperation.

To Mr. Rice we leave congratulations and the hope that he'll stay with Mentor High for many more years.

To Miss Spring we leave hopes of a YWCA in Mentor.

We don't know what to leave to Miss Stoner. She said that she wouldn't take the Annual, so we leave her with our many thanks for all the help she has given us.

To Miss Taylor we leave all our money of which there isn't much left. Anyway, the thought was there.

The senior girls will their P.J. parties to the junior girls in hopes they won't forget Mr. Leahy.

Shirley Aikey leaves her extra credit to Ruth Schminky.

Pat Blount leaves her driving "abilities" to Babe Lucas.

"Breezy" Brethour and Eddie Gordon leave together.

Marty Byler leaves her nickname "Irma" to the four winds.

Janie and Jackie leave.

Gerry Fedak leaves her short skirts to Bev Gordon.

Bill Gaw leaves his height to Jay Eldred.

Joe Gorman leaves Betty Ann.

Barb Gray leaves Rex Lanning her itchy teeth to help keep his mind off other girls.

Mary Hermick leaves her figure to Nancy Hawkins.

Bill Hickey leaves his injuries to any one of the Lake Shore League schools who will accept them.

Dorothy Horen leaves her old beat-up skates to Gwen Aikey.

Anna Nordin leaves her fun in art class to future artists.

Nancy Mallett leaves New Year’s Eve memories.

Sorry, girls; Dave Morse, Bill Higgins, and Bob Rust are leaving.

Nancy Paterson leaves her excess weight to Joe Evans.

Gladys Schomaker leaves her natural blond hair to Marilyn Schultz.

Mary Singleton leaves her four feet ten inches to Joyce Markell.

Hylda Taylor leaves her ability not to catch on to jokes, to Ray Merrill.

Jack Wachs leaves his title of captain to Jim Lors.

Boyd Walker leaves his nickname “Worms” to Don Dusa who gave it to him.

Mary Ann Wheeler leaves her second clarinet music to Jane Quick.

Laura Wollam leaves her jokes to Mr. Higham.

Jack Crysler leaves all his troubles to Jerry Smith. Poor Jerry.

Anyone who can play a trumpet can have Janet Garvin’s. Toot, toot.

Nancy Hershberger leaves still trying to see what develops in Ev’s darkroom.

Betty Juskoski leaves all her torn-up pictures and a roll of scotch tape to Marilyn Poole.

Ev Keltto leaves all the sextette music to someone who can sing.

Barb Kotnyek wills her majorette uniform to anyone who’s crazy enough to freeze come next fall.

Donna Miller leaves her cafeteria job to Anna Jasper. Good luck.

Dolly Nagy wills her ability in hooking one of the “Hickey” boys to Marilyn Bourne.

Marcia leaves a certain “34 Ford” to anyone with nerve enough to drive it.

Sally Harter wills her gift of gab to all the dead-heads.

“Squeek” Schwentner leaves all his demerits and “Racehorse” leaves all his so called “legal excuses” to Ray McLeod.

Mary Ann Urban leaves all her unanswered questions to her sister Margaret, plus one dictionary.

Dick Warner wills “Casey’s Cozy Office” to all loyal followers!

Jinny Bosley leaves all her sharp fashion ideas to next year’s “Best dressed gal.”

Bill Steinle wills his position on the bench to any football player who wants callouses.

Keith leaves his drums to all the drummers.

Joanna Wilson leaves the art room to future students.

Gordie and Jim leave Betty Jane and Nancy.

“Limpy” Reeves wills his crutches to all on the casualty list.

Don Covert leaves his arguing ability to Mr. Moor’s English class members.

The class battle-axes, Andrews and Harter leave best wishes!

“Chicky” Berry leaves wishing she had Nancy Hershberger’s Shore annual. Whow!

Thelma Davidson and Ramona Crookshanks will their shyness to Bev Gordon.

Joy leaves her personality plus to all those who need it!

Gene and Joanne leave their “little moments” to Bev and Teddy.

Donna wills her smooth looks to Mary Ann Booker who really doesn’t need them.

Frank and Emmy leave their fun to all the sophomores.

And we, the entire senior class leave Mentor High remembering all the fun we’ve had and go on to what we hope will be “greener pastures.”

Respectfully signed,

The Seniors of ’49
